

BusinessWorks

Done in a day! The Regional Center for Volunteerism/HandsOn Superior California provides a continuum of consultation, marketing and custom project development for businesses in the Sacramento region.

Drawing on our network of 450+ agency partnerships and 15+ years of providing planning and expertise to corporate service projects, HandsOn develops customized volunteer projects and one-time events specifically tailored to meet the needs and interests of your company.

"We are amazed at all the work HandsOn and the Kaiser volunteers did to make this day very successful and extremely gratifying. HandsOn's support and organization made our MLK Day service project a success."

-Rebecca Loper, Vice Principal, Skycrest Elementary

Let us give you a hand!

HandsOn Superior California prepares, coordinates and executes all aspects of your planned projects. All your team needs to do is show up, volunteer, and have fun! Services offered under BusinessWorks include, but are not limited to:

Project Development

- Identify and recruit agencies that can use the volunteer support of your employees
- Coordinate all logistics including project planning, site inspection, and purchase and delivery of supplies
- Assist your company with internal volunteer recruitment
- Track employee volunteer hours
- Assess project time frame, including date of service and time frame for projects to be completed
- Arrange for food and refreshment purchase and delivery

Project Management

- On-site volunteer registration
- Manage day of event schedule
- Volunteer orientation and training
- On-site project management and trouble-shooting
- Enhance PR efforts surrounding volunteer projects including Social Media

Evaluation and Reporting

- Breakdown of employee participation for each site
- Event day survey results to measure impacts on employees
- Data on work completed and its impact
- Feedback from employees who volunteered
- Feedback from agency partner(s) and volunteer site staff

Benefits

Employee volunteering events pay dividends long after the project is complete. Volunteerism improves employee morale, strengthens corporate reputation in the community and creates opportunities for leadership training and team building.

"From matching us to the best organizations, to providing expertise in planning, and logistics, HandsOn Sacramento ensures that we can really make an impact in our community in one day"

- Sam Levine, SAP

Costs

Due to the level of customization available to each corporate partner, projects and programs are quoted on a case-by-case basis. The BusinessWorks fee for projects can range from $65 to $100 per volunteer, plus any associated supply, food/beverage and transportation costs. The minimum corporate project fee is $2,500. For more information and to explore opportunities, please contact Valeri Mihanovich at vmihanovich@handsonsacto.org or by phone at 916-447-7063 x101.

HandsOn Superior California is a 501 (c)(3) non-profit organization supported by corporate sponsors, private donations and grants. The fees generated from BusinessWorks support our day-to-day volunteer programming including connecting individuals and groups to volunteer projects through our online volunteer matching system:

www.handsonsuperiorcal.org and coordinating volunteers and recovery efforts in times of disaster.

"It was a pleasure working with HandsOn Sacramento. As a team of one, with more than 6,000 employees, having the support of an organization that really knows their stuff was vital to the success of our annual volunteer service campaigns....From planning to implementation, they manage the entire process so that each service project is carried out flawlessly."

- Nadine James-Ward, Blue Shield of California
